SESSION V – Wednesday 20 May – 9.15am

1. Constitution of Assembly (Commissioners are asked to stand for items marked *)

* Paraphrase 18 (CH4 715)

Glasgow Moore's Psalm-Singer's Pocket Companion, 1756

1. Be - hold! the moun - tain of the Lord in lat - ter days shall rise on moun - tain tops a - bove the hills, and draw the won - dering eyes.

1. Behold! the mountain of the Lord
in latter days shall rise
on mountain tops above the hills,
and draw the wondering eyes.
2. Among the nations he shall judge;
his judgements truth shall guide;
his sceptre shall protect the just,
and quell the sinner's pride.
3. No strife shall rage, nor hostile feuds
disturb those peaceful years;
to ploughshares men shall beat their swords,
to pruning-hooks their spears.
4. No longer hosts, encountering hosts,
shall crowds of slain deplore:
they hang the trumpet in the hall,
and study war no more.
5. Come then, O house of Jacob! come
to worship at his shrine;
and, walking in the light of God,
with holy beauties shine.

The Reply to Her Majesty's Most Gracious Letter was submitted and approved for signature and transmission to Her Majesty.

The Reply was in the following terms:

TO THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY

May it please Your Majesty

We, Your Majesty's loyal subjects convened in General Assembly, have received with pleasure Your Majesty's gracious letter to us.

We greatly value Your Majesty's continuing pledge to maintain the historic rights and privileges of the Church of Scotland.

Your Majesty and His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh continue to be in our prayers. We wish to record our gratitude at the high number of public engagements and duties which Your Majesty and His Royal Highness carry out in the course of serving our nation and Commonwealth. The Church of Scotland wishes once more to commend Your Majesty for all that has been accomplished in the course of Your Majesty's reign. Your untiring efforts on our behalf are a stirring example of service.

We are also delighted that Your Majesty has been blessed with a great-granddaughter, Princess Charlotte Elizabeth Diana. It is always a joy to welcome the safe arrival of a child, and we pray that good health and happiness will be a constant presence in the family of the Earl and Countess of Strathearn.

It is with delight we welcome the appointment of Lord Hope of Craighead as Your Majesty's Lord High Commissioner to our General Assembly. As a Member of the Order of the Thistle and one of the first Justices of the Supreme Court of the United Kingdom and its first Deputy President we recognise the high regard in which Lord Hope is held in our country.

It was a particular pleasure for us to note Your support at the services to commemorate the beginning of the First World War and especially Your Gracious presence at the annual service at the Scottish National War Memorial.

We can also assure Your Majesty of the great comfort Your presence brought at the service to mark the end of the hostilities in Afghanistan to the families of those who lives were lost, or who were injured.

We were delighted with the initiative of Prince Harry in organising the Invictus Games. They were an unprecedented success and again brought such hope and inspiration to the fore in the face of previous sadness and suffering, allowing us to marvel at the depths of human resilience and to rejoice in the skill of medical teams.

Your Majesty's comments about the ecumenical work and projects of our Church, and our continuing concern for the poorest and marginalised in our society are most apposite as the Church seeks to reconcile people and build harmonious communities across barriers and boundaries that would otherwise divide. We remain committed to working with all people of goodwill to build a society grounded on the values we find in the gospels and on the faith we share in Jesus Christ.

Finally, we commend to the unfailing grace and protection of Almighty God, Your Majesty and His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh and as we begin our deliberations we pray that God will continue to bestow favour upon Your Majesty, that you may long reign over us.

THE MINISTERS, ELDERS AND DEACONS OF
THE CHURCH OF SCOTLAND CONVENED IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY
