DATA PROTECTION ACT CONSENT

As stated in the Church's privacy policy, available on our website at www.churchofscotland.org.uk, the purpose of the Data Protection Act 1998 is to ensure that any personal data an organisation holds about an individual is stored and used in an appropriate way. The Church of Scotland, through the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, is registered with the Information Commissioner's Office and strives to comply fully with data protection law.

We are committed to protecting your privacy and safeguarding your personal data. The information which you provide to us will be held and processed to enable the Ministries Council of the Church of Scotland (and any other Council, Committee or Department based in the Church Offices at 121 George Street, Edinburgh and any connected offices, such as the Priority Areas Office in Glasgow) to communicate with you for administration purposes connected with the discernment process, training, continuing ministerial development, church business and other related matters. We will only keep the data for as long as necessary.

Your information may also be shared with a third party: Healthlink 360, a Christian organisation that undertakes psychological screening and OTACS, an occupational health check.

If you agree to the information being used in this way and for us to update it when we are informed of any change of your personal details then please complete and submit the form. If you have any queries please contact Angie McNabb or Lezley Stewart on [ext 2348] as soon as possible.

Please note that a single £15 fee is payable by participants prior to attending the Event. This helps to cover the costs of catering and administration. There are no further costs incurred. Please return the completed form (to Ministries Council (Vocations Information Day), 121 George Street, Edinburgh, EH2 4YN) along with your cheque.

Please do not enclose cash. Cheques should be made payable to the Church of Scotland.

Please also note that participants are responsible for their own travel costs to and from the Conference.

 In 2011, the General Assembly approved the rule whereby applications to participate in the enquiry and assessment process will not normally be accepted from anyone who has not been a member, or adherent member of the Church of Scotland or a church under WCRC for three years or less – the vocations conference is open for anyone to attend, regardless of length of membership.**
