

Joint Public Issues Team Intern 2018-19

Location: Based at Methodist Church House, near Baker Street, London

Paid Internship: 12 month fixed-term contract beginning 3 September 2018

Salary of £21,000 per annum (London Living Wage)

Do you want to work as part of a team bringing about meaningful change in the world? Are you interested in making links between faith, policy and politics?

The Joint Public Issues Team works on behalf of the Baptist, Methodist, and United Reformed churches and the Church of Scotland on issues of justice and peace. This internship offers opportunities to develop skills in research, campaigning and communication, which will enable you to work on a range of issues as part of a dynamic team.

This is a full-time internship for a year paid at the London Living Wage starting in September 2018 and is based in central London.

You will work as part of a team in the following areas:

- Analysing aspects of public policy
- Researching and drafting briefings
- Maintaining JPIT's multiple social media channels
- Contributing to campaigns, making presentations and engaging with churches

There will be opportunities for professional and personal learning and development to equip the Intern for employment after their time on the internship.
