

INVEST IN PEACE

ACTION FOR A JUST PEACE IN ISRAEL and PALESTINE

Please invest in peace. Whatever your experience or available time, the ideas listed below can help you. One person cannot do everything, but together we can make a difference.

Get further information about all these suggestions from the Church of Scotland website: www.cofscotland.org.uk

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called children of God.

PRAY / WORSHIP

- From wherever you are, join the 'Wave of Prayer' organised by the Sabeel Ecumenical Liberation Theology Centre in Jerusalem every Thursday at noon. Pray for peace with justice.
- Remember all Church of Scotland staff working in the Holy Land.
- Sing the new Hymn: Lord Jesus, You wept for Jerusalem

GIVE

- £10 to the Al-shurooq School for blind children
- £100 towards Christian Aid's work in Gaza
- Buy books for the Lutheran Schools' Library project
- Financially support projects in the Holy Land through The Guild project, Interfaith Action
- Give 3 months of your time working with the Ecumenical Accompaniers Programme (EAPPI)
- Make a gift of fairly-traded Palestinian products from Hadeel.

READ

- Kairos Palestine document
- A Palestinian Christian Cry for Reconciliation by Naim Ateek
- Church of Scotland Mission Partner blogs
- Christian Aid Reports

JOIN

- The Scottish Palestinian Forum
- The Friends of Tabeetha School
- The Friends of St Andrew's Church

WRITE

- Send a Christmas card to Christians living in Bethlehem
- Write to your MP or to the Israeli Ambassador to Britain reinforcing British opposition to illegal settlements. We can help draft your letter.

MEET

- Invite a Church of Scotland Mission Partner or EAPPI volunteer to speak at your church
- Go to Israel & Palestine on pilgrimage and meet Christians living there
- Twin your congregation with a church in the Middle East
- Invite Jewish or Muslim neighbours to talk about their faith.
