

HOMELESSNESS

Achieving The 2012 Pledge?

Friday 30 September, 10.00am-3.15pm

Edinburgh City Chambers, High Street, Edinburgh EH1 1YJ

In 2002 the then Scottish Executive set a national homelessness target that by 2012 every unintentionally homeless person will be entitled to settled accommodation.

The Scottish Government has maintained the pledge to achieve the target, but with just a few months remaining how much more needs to be done?

Join policy-makers, campaigners, volunteers, housing providers and activists to discuss and debate what happens after 2012.

SPEAKERS INCLUDE:

Mary Taylor, Chief Executive, Scottish Federation of Housing Associations

Raymond Young OBE, Activist and campaigner

and input from COSLA plus theological reflections

Attendance is free. Lunch will be provided. You are invited to contribute a voluntary donation to help cover the costs of the event.

The seminar will be followed by the AGM of Scottish Churches Housing Action from 3.30-4.30pm. All participants are welcome to attend.

Please register by Friday 23 September.
