Youth Ministry Development Worker

The United Reformed Church, National Synod of Scotland are seeking to appoint a part-time Youth Ministry Development Worker to support and encourage Children's Ministry throughout the Synod.

The aim of this post is to support & inspire the Synod's Youth Executive and local Youth Ministry Practitioners, to offer engaging and appropriate opportunities for youth to explore and express faith, to have fellowship, and to promote intergenerational church community.

The post will be for a period of three years with an anticipated requirement of 728 hours per annum (average of 14 hours per week equivalent), at a hourly rate of £13.50.

We are seeking to fill this post with an effective commencement date of 1st October 2018. The post will be home based with support from the Synod Office in Glasgow.

It's new and evolving – come and help us to encourage and inspire our Youth work.

If you are interested in working for us and can meet the above requirements please contact our Synod Office for further information and an application form (noting that we do not accept CVs):
