

YOUTH ENCOUNTER series

DEVELOP

Cross, Crescent and Cool

A Training day looking at why and how Christians and Muslims should help build bridges between young people of the two faiths.

Date: Monday 8th June 2009

Time: 11am- 2:30pm

Venue: The Youth Encounter Centre, Moseley, Birmingham B13 9NY

Cost: £20 (payable on the day) which includes handouts, refreshments and a light lunch

The Trainers: The day will be led by Wahida Shaffi and Dr Andrew Smith.

Wahida Shaffi is the Muslim youth specialist for the Christian Muslim Forum. She completed her MA in International Politics and Security Studies/Conflict Resolution at the Department of Peace Studies at the University of Bradford. Since then she has gone on to deliver training on a wide range of issues both locally, nationally and internationally.

Dr Andrew Smith is the Christian youth specialist for the Christian Muslim Forum. He is the Leader of Youth Encounter for Scripture Union. He has pioneered the Faith and Young People project which brings together Christian and Muslim teenagers.

Who is the Course for?

The course is suitable for anyone interested in exploring ways in which they can help build bridges of friendship between Christian and Muslim teenagers. It will be especially relevant for youth workers, volunteer youth leaders, those working in FE colleges or Universities and faith leaders.
