VI. Information on Questions, Comments, Motions and Voting

The Standing Orders govern how business is conducted at the General Assembly. They are included at Section X in this Order of Proceedings; please familiarise yourself with them before the Assembly opens.

Below is a summary of how you can do some key things at the Assembly.

ASKING QUESTIONS

You will see from the Standing Orders that questions are always in order. However, the usual time for asking general questions on the Report or on the work of the Committee is immediately after a Convener has presented the Report and moved the deliverance. At this point the Moderator will ask for questions, before moving to section 1 of the proposed deliverance.

Questions which relate to specific sections of proposed deliverance should be asked when the Assembly is considering the relevant section of deliverance.

If you are in-person: If you have a mobile, or portable, device, you can use it to register a “request to speak” on the Assembly Hub as set out in the subsequent paragraph. Alternatively, there will be stations placed in the Hall where you can use your commissioner number to enter a “request to speak”, choosing to ask your question either at the start or against the relevant section(s) of deliverance. Be ready to speak at a microphone in the Hall.

If you are online: To ask a question you should register a “request to speak” on the Assembly Hub, choosing to ask it either at the start or against the appropriate section of deliverance. Details of how to do this through the Hub will be shared at the training events and in a video to be made available to you.

You can register your “request to speak” at any time in advance of the debate taking place, or “on the spot”.

MAKING COMMENTS

General comments should be made when section 1 (“Receive the Report”) is being considered; more specific comments should be made when the Assembly is considering the relevant section of deliverance.

If you are in-person: Again, if you have a mobile, or portable, device, you can use it to register a “request to speak” on the Assembly Hub as set out in the subsequent paragraph. Alternatively, there will be stations placed in the Hall where you can use your Commissioner Number to enter a “request to speak” against the relevant section(s) of deliverance. Be ready to speak at a microphone in the Hall.

If you are online: Again, you should register a “request to speak” on the Assembly Hub against the appropriate section of deliverance. Details of how to do this through the Hub will be shared at the training events and in a video to be made available to you.

You can register your “request to speak” at any time in advance of the debate taking place, or “on the spot”.

MOVING MOTIONS

At each Assembly various “motions” are considered. These mainly consist of the proposed sections of deliverance appearing in Reports from Standing Committees. However, any Commissioner can move a motion to amend a proposed section of deliverance, offer an alternative section to the one proposed or to add a new section of deliverance. (To remove a section of deliverance, see below).

If you want to do any of these things, you need to submit a “Notice of Motion” to the Clerks. It helps everyone if you can give as much advance notice as possible of your motion. The Clerks may contact you about the text of your proposed motion.

Types of motion

When you prepare a Notice of Motion, you need to decide what sort of motion you want to propose. Options are:-

1. amendments – adding words to or removing words from a section of proposed deliverance but leaving the basic meaning intact. You can also propose an amendment to another commissioner’s amendment.
2. counter-motions – proposing an alternative to an existing section of proposed deliverance which, if approved, would be distinctly different from the section proposed by the Standing Committee (i.e. if your counter-motion is accepted by the Assembly it would mean that the originally proposed section falls).
3. new section of deliverance altogether – adding to the Standing Committee’s work or affirming a priority. Such a motion needs to fall within the relevant Standing Committee’s remit. For a motion which relates to a matter falling within a Committee’s remit but to which no reference is made in the Report, you must give the relevant Convener reasonable notice in writing.

4. If you simply don't think that the Assembly should accept a section of proposed deliverance, there is no need to move a motion stating the direct negative. Instead, when the Assembly is considering that section of deliverance, you should speak to explain why you encourage a vote against it.

The Moderator is the final judge of the category into which a motion falls.

How to submit a Notice of Motion:

If you are in person: If you are in the Hall with a device enabling you to do so, you can use the Assembly Hub as in the subsequent paragraph. Alternatively you can email a duly completed notice of motion form to the Clerks of Assembly using pcoffice@churchofscotland.org.uk, or you can complete and return to the Clerks at the top table or to the Assembly Office a paper notice of motion form.

If you are online: You should use the Assembly Hub to register a notice of motion in advance in respect of the relevant section(s) of deliverance. Details of how to submit a motion through the Hub will be shared at the training events and in a video to be made available to you.

Procedure for taking Notices of Motion:

If you submit a notice of motion, by whatever method, a notification that you wish to speak will automatically be generated.

If you are in person: You should be ready to speak at a station in the Hall.

If you are online: You should be ready to be called to speak by the Moderator.

When the Assembly reaches the appropriate place in the debate for your motion to be moved, the Moderator will call you to speak. The advantage of using the Assembly Hub will be that other Commissioners will be able to see your motion in advance.

The Moderator will ask you to read what you propose (or the Clerks will do this) and the text will be shown on the screens in the Hall and the live feed. The Moderator will then invite you to tell the Assembly why you believe your proposal is the right one. You have up to five minutes to speak.

All motions must be seconded. Ideally you should arrange a seconder in advance. A fellow commissioner will be able to second your motion using the Assembly Hub, or alternatively, a motion can be seconded by an in person commissioner in the Hall. If no one is willing to second it, your motion falls.

Seconding can be formal so a seconder does not need to speak in support of a proposal but if they wish to do so, they should also be ready, depending on whether they are in person or online, to speak at a station in the Hall or should register a "request to speak" on the Assembly Hub.

Once your motion has been moved and seconded, there will be debate at the end of which you will be asked if you wish to say anything else to convince the Assembly. After that, the Convener presenting the Report will be asked to give their response and then the Assembly will decide on the matter by voting.

VOTING

If you are in person: You will vote using a Bluetooth handset supplied to you at the Hall.

If you are online: You will vote using the Assembly Hub.

Also, we may use a process for quick approval of certain sections of proposed deliverance rather than taking a formal vote on every occasion. This will involve the Moderator ascertaining the view of the Assembly by asking in person commissioners to stamp their feet or stand and at the same time asking online commissioners to "raise a hand" on Zoom.

Overture.....

VIII. Presbytery Overture

Presbytery of Glasgow

Overture as to the Congregational Contributions Giving to Grow Regulations (Regs I 2022)28

Overture

Overture as to the Congregational Contributions Giving to Grow Regulations (Regs I 2022) From the Presbytery of Glasgow

Whereas:

1. The Congregational Contributions Giving to Grow Regulations (Regs I 2022) (the 'Regulations') stipulate that each charge shall pay a Giving to Grow contribution which includes a component for Shared Activities which is determined by section 16(c) of the Regulations to be 10%.
2. The Supplementary Report of the Assembly Trustees to the General Assembly 2022 describes at sec 2.1 (p.02) Shared Activities as including "the activities which provide support for the Church's mission as well as ensuring it complies with statutory regulations, safeguarding functions and best practices"
3. In the period during which the Regulations have been in force there has been a significant decline in the Shared Activities provided by national agencies, including inter alia:
 - (a) the cessation of the HIV Programme;
 - (b) the reduction of Priority Area staff by approximately 8 posts to 2;
 - (c) the substantial reduction in national funding for Sanctuary First;
 - (d) the cessation of the National Youth Assembly; and
 - (e) the cessation of national administration for the reimbursement of travel expenses for Ministers and MDS staff.
4. The congregational contributions required of congregations in terms of the Regulations are, in some cases, proving burdensome.
5. It is appropriate for the Assembly Trustees to review the level of the Shared Activities component of the Regulations to determine a lower proportionate figure.

Therefore:

It is humbly overtured by the Presbytery of Glasgow to the Venerable the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, that the Assembly Trustees should review the percentage (10%) that forms the Shared Activities component of the Contribution for each charge gathered by the Congregational Contributions Giving to Grow Regulations (Regs I 2022) and consider whether the Trustees might bring a proposal to amend the Regulations so as to reduce that percentage, to the General Assembly of 2026.

Or to do otherwise as to your Venerable Court may seem good.

Proposed Deliverance

The General Assembly:

1. Receive the Overture.
2. Instruct the Assembly Trustees to review the percentage (10%) that forms the Shared Activities component of the Contribution for each charge gathered by the Congregational Contributions Giving to Grow Regulations (Regs I 2022) and consider whether the Trustees might bring a proposal to amend the Regulations so as to reduce that percentage, to the General Assembly of 2026.

SUPPLEMENTARY REPORT OF THE ASSEMBLY TRUSTEES MAY 2025

Proposed Deliverance

The General Assembly:

1. Receive the Supplementary Report.
2. Approve the granting by the General Assembly of a formal indemnity in favour of the Pension Trustees to indemnify them in respect of personal liabilities that might arise in connection with the running of the Church's three defined benefit Pension Schemes, which closed on 31 December 2013, and authorise the Moderator and Principal Clerk to sign the Indemnities on behalf of the Assembly.
3. In light of the Scottish Government's proposed changes to the Scottish Charity Audit Threshold, pass the amendments to the Presbytery Finance Regulations (Regs III 2016) set out at Section 2.2 of this Supplementary Report and to the Congregational Finance Regulations (Regs II 2016) set out at Section 2.3 of this Supplementary Report.

Report

1. INDEMNITY FOR THE PENSION TRUSTEES IN RESPECT OF PERSONAL LIABILITIES

1.1 The Trustees of the Church's three defined benefit Pension Schemes (the Church of Scotland Pension Scheme for Ministers and Overseas Missionaries (the "Ministers Scheme"), The Church of Scotland Pension Scheme for Staff (the "Staff Scheme") and The Church of Scotland Pension Scheme for Ministries Development Staff (the "MDS Scheme") (together referred to as the "Schemes")) have carried out a review of the Rules of the Schemes. They have concluded that there are some gaps in the indemnities and protections provided to them by the terms of the Rules, specifically in relation to omissions in decision-making and unintentional breaches of law, and accordingly, they have requested an additional indemnity for each Scheme from the Church in respect of these. Excluded from the terms of this indemnity will be liabilities caused by fraud or dishonesty, by an act or omission which a trustee knew (or should have known, with the benefit of professional advice received at the time) to be a breach of trust, or by wilful neglect or default.

1.2 As the Pension Trustees are reporting to the General Assembly, the Ministers Scheme is well funded, with all the money needed to pay benefits and expenses held within the Scheme. The Staff Scheme and the MDS Scheme are fully insured, as they moved to buy-in at the end of 2024. This means that all future payments to members under the Staff Scheme and the MDS Scheme are guaranteed under an insurance policy put in place by the Pension Trustees and these Schemes have accordingly been de-risked. It is anticipated that both Schemes will move to buy-out in the near future (this means that the "blanket" insurance policy is replaced by individual policies with each pensioner). It is customary for Pension Trustees to be granted an indemnity against personal liabilities by the pension scheme employer when schemes are bought out by an insurance company and then wound up.

1.3 The Assembly Trustees have carefully considered the terms of the indemnities requested by the Pension Trustees and have concluded that the risk to the Church's assets in granting them is low, for three reasons:

1. The Ministers Scheme is in good financial health and the Staff Scheme and MDS Scheme are fully insured, with all benefits guaranteed. It is anticipated that the Ministers Scheme will also move to buy-in within the near future.
2. There is trustee liability insurance cover in place which provides cover for both the Assembly Trustees and the Pension Trustees with an aggregate liability cap of £10m and the Pension Trustees have committed to maintaining this cover unless agreed otherwise with the Church and, on the winding-up of one or more of the Schemes, to putting appropriate run-off insurance in place, the cap and duration of such cover to be agreed with the Church. This would be the first point of recourse for the Pension Trustees were a claim to be made against any of them in a personal capacity. Further, no claim on the Church's indemnities could be made if the claim was subject to an effective discharge provision granted in favour of the Pension Trustees by the Scheme Rules, or if it could be recovered by the Pension Trustees under the terms of professional indemnity insurance maintained by their professional advisers. The indemnities would only come into play if these protections failed.
3. The potential liabilities of the Pension Trustees, and thus of the Church under the indemnities, is reducing each year as no further benefits have been accrued since they closed on 31 December 2013.

1.4 The General Assembly is therefore invited to approve a Deliverance authorising the Moderator and the Principal Clerk to sign the indemnities on its behalf. Any decisions on how an indemnity would be honoured, in the unlikely event of a claim being made and the assets of the Unincorporated Entities proving to be insufficient, would be at the discretion of a future General Assembly.

2. CHANGES TO THE SCOTTISH CHARITY AUDIT THRESHOLD

2.1 The Scottish Government has committed to increasing the Scottish charity audit threshold from gross income of £500k per annum to gross income of £1m. The detail will be within the amendments to The Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 which are to be introduced in Autumn 2025. However, the change impacts the Presbytery Finance Regulations (Regulations III 2016) and Congregational Finance Regulations (Regulations II 2016) which both stipulate the threshold for audit being required is gross income of £500k. The announcement was made after the deadline for the main Assembly Trustees report to the General Assembly, therefore changes to these Regulations to bring them in line with The Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended), require to be made in this Supplementary Report.

2.2 The following amendments are therefore proposed:

Section C1 of the Presbytery Finance Regulations (Regulations III 2016) from:

“If the gross income of the Presbytery exceeds £500,000 in the current financial year an audit shall be conducted”.

Is changed to read:

“If the gross income of the Presbytery exceeds the threshold set out in The Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended), an audit shall be conducted”.

2.3 Section C1 of the Congregational Finance Regulations (Regulations II 2016) from:

“If the gross income of the congregation exceeds £500,000 in the current financial year an audit shall be conducted”.

Is changed to read:

“If the gross income of the congregation exceeds the threshold set out in The Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended), an audit shall be conducted”.

JOINT SUPPLEMENTARY REPORT OF THE FAITH ACTION PROGRAMME
LEADERSHIP TEAM AND THE ASSEMBLY TRUSTEES ON LIFE AND WORK
MAGAZINE MAY 2025

Proposed Deliverance

The General Assembly:

- 1. Receive the Joint Supplementary Report.
- 2. Celebrate the history and impact of Life and Work as the Church of Scotland’s magazine over many years, and acknowledge and thank all of its dedicated staff for their contributions (Section 1).
- 3. Note the financial deficits resulting from falling readership of Life and Work and agree to cease production in the current format (Sections 2.1 – 2.3).
- 4. Note work is commencing to explore an alternative, financially sustainable membership magazine that sits within a wider communications strategy for the Church of Scotland (Section 5.4).

Report

1. LIFE AND WORK

1.1 Current status

1.2 Life and Work has been in existence for 146 years, bringing news and encouragement to many Church of Scotland members throughout that time. Editorially independent, and firmly rooted in the affairs of the Church, over the years it has aimed to cover a broad range of subjects of interest to church goers across the spectrum. It has a special place in the Church’s heart, connecting people to key events and interesting updates in the life of the denomination and wider world throughout its history.

1.3 In recent years, as with many other print magazines, readership of, and subscriptions to, Life and Work have fallen significantly, as production costs have increased. Whereas previously the magazine worked as a standalone business generating surplus income, the magazine now requires significant investment year on year from central funds to underwrite its production. It is therefore with a very heavy heart that this report is now being presented to the Assembly for it has come to the point where the Church cannot continue to sustain Life and Work in its current print form.

2 CHANGES IN RECENT YEARS

2.1 Considerable work has been undertaken in recent years to place the magazine back onto a sound financial footing with a number of significant changes in style and content in the hope of increasing circulation. The circulation figures, as recorded by the Stewardship and Finance Department as of December 2024 record 4,011 set against the Church of Scotland membership of 245,000.

2.2 In recent years, an emphasis has been made on digital copies, but this also has not borne fruit. Digital sales income was £890 in 2017, and £8,391 in 2024, but this increase is against a decrease in print sales from £427,319 in 2017 to £209,414 in 2024.

2.3 Other revenue streams have also been investigated including branding, sponsorship, and grant funding. From a financial standpoint, costs such as printing and distribution have been driven down over the last few years and are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Advertising revenue has also seen reductions, dropping from £220k in 2017 to £97k in 2024. Prior to 2021, the financial results of Life and Work gave a steady surplus of around £50K per annum on average. Since then there has been a yearly loss.

Year	Net profit / (Loss) £
2017	66,684
2018	56,864
2019	45,953
2020	26,084
2021	(28,884)
2022	(6,635)
2023	(25,240)
2024	(133,323)

2.4 The original 2025 budget was forecast as being a deficit of £237k followed by an increasing year on year deficit position.

3 EXTERNAL REVIEW

3.1 The Resource & Presence Programme group was given oversight of the operations of the magazine with the creation of the Faith Action Programme Leadership Team (FAPLT) in May 2023. They identified early on that the magazine was facing significant financial challenge. In mid-2024 an independent consultant working pro-bono was asked to conduct a review of the magazine, examining both the business model and the content of the publication. This review lasted three months, and the staff of Life and Work contributed very helpfully to this piece of work.

3.2 The review concluded that the magazine had a dwindling readership, high running costs and was in need of a relaunch with a significantly different focus and style; and that the magazine was not sustainable in its current form, with costs continuing to rise and readership continuing to drop. A complete overhaul of the content was required in order to attract a new readership and for the content to align with the current needs of the Church of Scotland. In summary, not only is the magazine facing significant financial problems but its style and content is such that it would not appeal to a new generation of readership.

4 THE FUTURE

4.1 A Church publication has the potential to enthuse people and make them proud to be members of the Church of Scotland. It plays an important role in communicating with members and creating and consolidating our community. Despite regular attempts at reviewing design and content, the magazine as it stands does not entirely fulfil this purpose, except to a small section of Church membership.

4.2 Life and Work has played a significant part in the Church of Scotland's life and witness. Work will commence in seeking to find a way that the legacy of the magazine can continue in a different format which appeals to a wider readership and, like all other aspect of the Church's work, is financially sustainable.

4.3 This will form part of the developing internal communications strategy that seeks to provide a focus on and support to the Church of Scotland community both in Scotland and beyond. This internal communications strategy will be focused across a number of areas including support for local leadership, ministry, sustainable finances and the younger generation. Key to delivering on this will be the Digital Transformation Project which is now well under way and covered in more detail within the main report of the Assembly Trustees.

4.4 FAPLT and the Assembly Trustees would like to extend their thanks to the dedicated and long serving staff of Life and Work, to the Life and Work Advisory Committee and to those that have contributed to the magazine across the years. We recognise that the uncertainty of the last few months has been difficult for the staff and it is with considerable regret that we must recommend to the Assembly that the current model of magazine is brought to an end by October 2025 with the date of the final edition to be confirmed. Subscribers will be reimbursed for any unexpired portion of their subscription for the year.

4.5 We hope to be able to report to next year's Assembly on a new, financially sustainable membership magazine sitting within a well-developed internal communications strategy which will bring increased connectivity across the Church.

56. Proposals with Budgetary Implications. Prior to making any proposal, Commissioners should give due consideration as to whether this will incur the use of additional resources or affect the incoming resources for the Church's work, ie whether the proposal has budgetary implications. Advice on any proposal can be sought from the General Treasurer. A proposal with budgetary implications must be in the hands of Commissioners in proper form providing due notice (for example, as a Proposed Deliverance, Notice of Motion, or Crave of a Petition). Specifically, to ensure sensible budget controls:

- (b) Any proposal which results in a potential reduction in income, including a reduction in the funding provided by congregations, must be accompanied by a statement of where replacement funding will be found or expenditure reduced to compensate for the reduction in the income.

On the motion of the Procedure Committee or moved as part of the deliverance of the Assembly Business Committee, the General Assembly may resolve that the Report and draft Deliverance relating to a particular Council or Committee’s Report be taken in a time-bound process of debate and decision. Such a motion shall be moved at least 24 hours in advance of the presentation of the Report concerned.

Having so resolved the General Assembly shall operate the following timetable:-

- a) Start times shall be allotted to specified Sections of the Report and to the related sections of the draft Deliverance. Discussion of any Section of the Report shall not commence later than its allotted start time, but may begin earlier if debate of the previous Section has been completed.
- b) If discussion and debate of a particular Section of the Report has not been concluded within its allotted time, then further consideration of associated sections of the draft Deliverance shall be sisted and the General Assembly shall take up the next Section of the Report.
- c) If, at the close of the debate on the last Section of the Report, there is still time before the Order of the Day requires to be implemented or business is due to conclude, then the General Assembly shall return for further debate of any outstanding sections of the draft Deliverance remaining relative to each Section of the Report.
- d) If the Order of the Day or anticipated close of business is imminent, then any outstanding sections of the draft Deliverance shall be voted upon without debate, except that other motions circulated in the Daily Papers shall also be taken, without debate, the Convener simply having the right to indicate whether or not the Council or Committee is willing to accept the motion.
- e) Where motions appearing in the Daily Papers do not relate directly to the Report and draft Deliverance proposed by the Council or Committee, they will be taken either at the end of the appropriate Section, if there is time available according to the allotted timetable, or at the end of the appropriate Section when the procedure leading to the Order of the Day (or close of business) is being implemented.

84. Right to Move. Any Commissioner to the Assembly may make a motion upon any matter coming regularly before the Assembly; and on rising to do so he or she shall read the terms of the motion having previously handed the same in writing on the form provided to the Assembly Office or other point of collection intimated to the General Assembly. It shall be in order to move a motion regarding any matter in the care of a Committee to which no reference is made in the Report of that Committee, provided that reasonable notice has been given in writing to the Convener before presentation of the Report. The mover of any counter-motion or amendment may reply to the discussion of his or her motion, immediately before the Convener closes the debate.

85. Withdrawal. When a motion has been duly seconded it shall not be competent to withdraw it, or to make any alteration upon it, without the permission of the Assembly.

86. Priority of Deliverance over other motion. The Deliverance on the Report of a Committee shall take precedence of any other motion on that subject.

87. Committee Convener. The Convener of a Committee when a Commissioner, on giving in the Report of that Committee, shall move the Deliverance proposed in terms of SO 41. Notices of Motion so given in shall, if received in time to do so, be included in the "Assembly Papers" not later than the day on which the business is to be taken. 91. In Support. When a motion or motions have been made and seconded, any Member (including a formal seconder in terms of SO 95) may take part in subsequent debate.

92. Speeches. (1) Except as provided in SOs 84 and 87, no Member may speak twice on the same question except in explanation, and then only by special permission of the Assembly. (2) Members shall make relevant declarations of interest where the topic of debate makes it appropriate to do so.

93. Point of Order. Any Member may rise to speak to a Point of Order. A speaker is not to be interrupted unless upon a call to order. When so interrupted he or she shall cease speaking, and shall resume his or her seat until the Point of Order is decided. The Member calling to order shall state the grounds for so doing; and the speaker who has been interrupted may briefly reply in explanation, to show that he or she is not out of order, but no other Member may speak to the Point of Order unless with the permission or at the request of the Moderator, with whom the decision of the point rests, though the Moderator may put the point to a vote of the Assembly.

94. There shall be no right of reply to a debate except as provided for by SOs 84 and 87.

(d) DEALING WITH MOTIONS

97. Character of Motions. Motions shall be considered as belonging to one of the following categories, and shall be dealt with as prescribed, viz:

1. The original Motion.
2. Counter-Motions – being Motions contradictory or negative of the original Motion or of a substantial part of the original Motion.
3. Amendments being Motions not substantially contradictory of the original Motion or Counter-Motion, but for making deletions, alterations, or additions thereto without defeating its main object.
4. Amendments of amendments already moved and seconded.

98. Moderator to Judge. The Moderator shall be judge of the category to which any Motions shall be considered to belong, and the ruling of the Moderator shall be final.

99. Grouping of Amendments. When to any Proposed Deliverance there has been given notice of amendments which differ from each other only slightly in their general tenor, the Moderator shall decide whether or not to permit more than one of such amendments to be moved.

100. Voting on Amendments. When an amendment (Category 3) has been proposed it shall be disposed of by the Assembly before any other counter-motion or amendment is proposed. However, it shall be in order for an amendment of an amendment (Category 4) to be proposed, seconded and debated, after which the Moderator shall take a vote “For” or “Against”. When all such Category 4 motions have been so disposed of, the Assembly shall complete its consideration of the original amendment (Category 3) and the Moderator shall take a vote “For” or “Against” the original amendment amended or unamended as the case may be. For the avoidance of doubt, it is affirmed that the order of debate for Category 3 and Category 4 motions shall be the same except as herein provided and that the provisions of SO 87 shall apply to both.

101. Voting on Motions. After all amendments, if any, have been disposed of, the Moderator shall take a vote between all Motions in Categories (1) and (2), and in doing so shall adopt the following procedure. A vote shall be taken in one of the methods provided below, between all the Motions in the order in which they were made, beginning at the first. Each Commissioner may vote for one Motion only. If, on the numbers being announced, one Motion has obtained a clear majority of votes, all the other Motions shall fall; but if no Motion has obtained a clear majority, the Motion having the smallest number of votes shall be struck off and a vote taken between the remaining Motions; and the Assembly may determine.

102. Voting for Appointments. In the case of voting for appointments to vacant offices in the Church, where there are more than two nominations the Assembly shall vote separately on all the names proposed, and, unless there be a majority in favour of one over all the others combined, the one having the lowest number shall be dropped, and the Assembly shall again vote on those that remain.

103. Deliberative Vote. The Moderator or Acting Moderator in the Chair shall have no Deliberative Vote.

104. Casting Vote. If in any division there shall be an equality of votes for two proposals before the Assembly, the Moderator shall have power to give a deciding vote; and if in the course of the voting as provided in SOs 100 and 101 above, there should be an equality of votes for the two Motions having fewest votes, the Moderator shall have power to give a deciding vote and the Motion for which the Moderator shall vote shall be retained for the purpose of the next vote of the Assembly.

(e) TAKING THE VOTE

105. The Moderator may, in any circumstances and at his or her sole discretion, ascertain the mind of the Assembly by asking the Commissioners to stand in their places, and shall intimate to the Assembly on which side there is in his or her opinion a majority. Unless the opinion of the Moderator so intimated is at once challenged, it shall become the decision of the Assembly. If any Commissioner challenges the opinion of the Moderator, the Assembly shall proceed to take an electronic vote using a system approved by the Assembly Business Committee. Alternatively, it shall be open to the Moderator, again at his or her sole discretion and in any circumstances, to ascertain the mind of the Assembly by recourse to the use of electronic voting. After all votes have been counted the Moderator shall intimate the result of the voting which will become the decision of the Assembly. In no circumstances shall a second vote be taken on a matter which has already been the subject of a vote by electronic voting. The Procedure Committee shall ensure that Commissioners are familiar with the method of electronic voting and will appoint Tellers to assist Commissioners, where necessary, with the process of casting votes and to assist the Assembly with the process of voting by paper ballot which shall be a competent alternative to the taking of a vote by electronic means in the event of a failure in the electronic voting system.

[ADDITIONAL WORDING APPLYING TO A HYBRID GENERAL ASSEMBLY]

[For all attendees] Quick approval of business: The Moderator shall have discretion to gauge approval, without need formally to vote, of any section of deliverance by combining the following indications and forming a view: having taken into account any “requests to speak” which have been registered, they may ask in person commissioners to stamp their feet or stand and at the same time may ask online commissioners to “raise a hand” on Zoom to indicate approval of a section of deliverance. If following use of this procedure any commissioner requests a formal vote, then the Moderator shall call for an electronic vote to take place.

Where an electronic vote is used, it shall proceed as follows:

[If attending in person]: An in person attendee shall vote using a Bluetooth handset supplied to them at the start of the Assembly. Voting for such persons via the Assembly Hub will be disabled.

[If attending online] An online attendee shall use the Assembly Hub to vote. In the event of a failure in the technology operating the Assembly Hub, online attendees shall vote using Zoom Polls or shall use such other voting mechanism as may be prescribed at the time by the Procedure Committee.

[For all attendees]: The votes from both from in-person attendance and the Assembly Hub shall be added together and the result shall be announced by the Moderator. The voting figures shall be minuted where the Moderator, in his or her discretion, specifically requests this, or where the Clerks of Assembly decide that it would be appropriate to do so. In no circumstances shall a second vote be taken on a matter which has already been the subject of a vote by electronic voting.

(f) DISSENTS

106. Entering. Any Commissioner dissatisfied with a judgement of the Assembly, which has not been unanimous, has the right to enter his or her dissent against it; but no dissent can be given in until the matter to which it refers has, for that session, been disposed of, the Minute adjusted, and the Assembly is ready to proceed to other business.

107. Adhering. When a dissent has been entered, it is in order for any other Commissioner present when that judgement was pronounced to adhere to such dissent. No other’s adherence may be entered.

108. Reasons. A person dissenting may do so with or without giving in reasons of dissent. If he or she dissent for reasons given in at the time, or to be afterwards given in, such reasons shall, if received by the Assembly as proper and relevant, and provided they are given in before the close of the next session (or, when made on the last day of the Assembly, before the close of the same session), be recorded in the Minutes.

109. Answers. If the Assembly appoint a Committee to prepare answers to reasons of dissent, the Report of the Committee shall, except on the last day of the Assembly, be in the “Assembly Papers”; and, as approved by the Assembly, shall be included in the Minutes, if the reasons of dissent have been so circulated.

110. Record of Dissents. Reasons of dissent and answers thereto when not entered in the Minutes, shall be kept in a separate Record of Dissents.

[ADDITIONAL WORDING APPLYING TO A HYBRID GENERAL ASSEMBLY]

[If attending in person]: If such a person has a device enabling them to do so, they may email their dissent as in the subsequent paragraph. Alternatively, an in person attendee may sign the list provided by the Assembly Office.

[If attending online]: A dissent shall be entered or adhered to by sending an email to: pcoffice@churchofscotland.org.uk with the subject line stating "Dissent against....[insert name of Standing Committee and number of relevant section of deliverance]".
