

Other Sources of Training

Your Project may want to approach some of the training providers below, to meet the learning needs you've identified among the people involved in your work.

Evaluation Support Scotland

ESS offer a programme of evaluation workshops for third sector organisations.

<http://www.evaluationsupportscotland.org.uk/how-can-we-help/workshop-and-events/>

Fresh Expressions

Fresh Expressions provide inspirational Vision Days, a six-session freely-downloadable Mission Shaped Intro course, and a one year part-time Mission Shaped Ministry course, to help people reconnect with their communities and think creatively about new ways of being church.

<http://www.freshexpressions.org.uk/training>

Glasgow Council for the Voluntary Sector

GCVS offer training on a wide variety of topics, including community development, employer advice, funding, Health and Safety, IT skills, social media, social enterprise and lots more!

<http://www.gcv.org.uk/learning-and-development/training-programme/>

Safeguarding

All Church of Scotland Presbyteries offer a rolling programme of introductory Safeguarding Training courses, for those volunteering or working with children and protected adults.

http://www.churchofscotland.org.uk/_data/assets/pdf_file/0018/18162/volunteer_introductory_course_calendar.pdf

Scottish Council for Voluntary Organisations

SCVO provide courses on a wide variety of topics, including fundraising, people management, report writing and social media.

<http://www.scvo.org.uk/events/>

Scottish Social Enterprise Academy

The SSEA offers several learning and development programmes in leadership and entrepreneurship.

http://www.theacademy-ssea.org/programmes/open_programmes

Third Sector Interfaces

Each local authority area in Scotland has an Interface, which helps support, promote, develop and represent voluntary organisations and community groups. Visit the 'Third Sector Interfaces' section of the Voluntary Action Scotland website for details of local Interfaces in your area.

<http://www.vasotland.org/tsis/find-your-tsi>

Toastmasters International

Toastmasters organise a number of Public Speaking Clubs in Scotland, which provide lots of advice on speaking out with confidence.

<http://publicspeakingScotland.co.uk/public-speaking-clubs-in-scotland-2/>

Volunteer Scotland

Volunteer Scotland offer training courses on working with volunteers, including how to support them and measure their impact.

<http://www.volunteerscotland.net/organisations/training/>

Youthlink

Youthlink Scotland co-ordinates a diary of training courses for those working with young people, with topics including child protection, mental health awareness and social media.

<http://www.youthlinkScotland.org/Index.asp?MainID=8096>

Go For It Fund, Ministries Council, Church of Scotland, 121 George Street, Edinburgh, EH2 4YN

T. 0131 225 5722 E: goforit@churchofscotland.org.uk

W: www.churchofscotland.org.uk/serve/go_for_it