

Innellan Church, Wyndham Road, Innellan, PA23 7TA

Property

Traditional church of stone construction located in the small village of Innellan. The village sits on the west banks of the Firth of Clyde on the Cowal Peninsula within Argyll and lies around four miles south of Dunoon.

The church is set on a hillside plot providing wonderful views over the Firth of Clyde. It presents an excellent opportunity to purchase in a beautiful area of Scotland.

The church extends over two floors and connects to a single storey hall which lies on the southern gable.

Please note- Whilst the Church and Manse are sold separately, they share an access and consideration may be given to selling as one lot for 'Offers Over £400,000'.

Accommodation

The internal accommodation comprises the following: Main Church, Foyer/Vestibule, Church Hall, Kitchen, Male and Female DDAWC's, Former Coal Cellar, Vestry and Balcony.

Entrance is taken via a front vestibule area leading into the main congregation hall of the church building. The accommodation to the rear contains the church hall, a former coal cellar, vestry, kitchen and adapted WC's. The hall is more modern in style and the vestry and coal cellar form part of the original building. Each of the WC compartments have a single WC and wash hand basin with fitments.

Planning

The church is not listed, and could be used, without the necessity of obtaining change of use consent, as a Creche, day nursery, day centre, educational establishment, museum or public library. It also has potential for a variety of other uses, such as retail, commercial or community uses, subject to obtaining the appropriate consents. Converting the church to a residential accommodation might also be possible, again subject to the usual consents.

Local Area

The village of Innellan is set in a wonderful location and has a number of local amenities including its own 9-hole Golf Course, Tennis Club, Bowling Green and Primary School. The village also has two bar/restaurants, general store with Post Office and community hall. The South Cowal area has a welcoming community with lots of opportunity to get involved with local events and activities. There are numerous popular outdoor in the area including mountain biking, sailing, wild swimming, kayaking and stand up paddle boarding.

Dunoon is a short distance away and provides both the Argyll Ferries and Western Ferry terminals from where there are frequent passenger and vehicular sailings across to Gourock. From here the road and public transport links make it possible to commute on a daily basis to Glasgow and the central belt.

Holidaymakers to Cowal experience the feeling of apparent mainland detachment created by the pleasant short ferry crossing. It is possible to drive to Glasgow via Loch Lomond which takes a little longer but is via some of the most famous and breath-taking countryside in western Scotland. Dunoon is also the gateway to the Loch Lomond and Trossachs National Park. The area has some of the most dramatic and picturesque scenery in the west of Scotland which includes Benmore Botanical Gardens.
