- 5.8 At the Appeal Management Hearing the Convener and the Vice-Convener shall have power to make any order or determination which is just and reasonable and/or which they think appropriate to secure the expeditious disposal of the appeal, which order or determination shall be final. Such order or determination may include in the interests of justice a continuation to a continued Appeal Management Hearing (and this on one or more occasions).

- 7.2 The Written Argument submitted by the Appellant is to be an expansion of the Grounds of Appeal already submitted and is to set out for each ground of appeal, a succinct and articulate statement of the facts founded upon and the propositions of law being advanced.
- 7.3 The Written Argument submitted by the Respondent shall set out the basis upon which the Respondent is challenging the appeal. It shall set out, in respect of the challenge to each ground of appeal, a succinct and articulate statement of the facts founded upon and the propositions of law being advanced.
- 7.4 Each Written Argument shall also (i) specify what disposal of the matter is sought by that Party, and (ii) be signed by or on behalf of the Party submitting it.
- 7.5 Each Written Argument when lodged shall be accompanied by (i) all documents referred to or founded upon in the Written Argument, (ii) subject always to any order or determination made at the Appeal Management Hearing in terms of Rule 5.6 c) above, all productions, or copies thereof, referred to or founded upon in the Written Argument, and (iii) all legal authorities, or copies thereof, listed in the Written Argument.
- 7.6 Each Party shall, when lodging its Written Argument and accompanying papers, send copies to the other Party.
- 7.7 No new grounds of appeal may be raised either in Written Argument or at the Appeal Hearing itself, save that on application to the Convener and the Vice-Convener at the Appeal Hearing itself, the Convener and the Vice-Convener shall have sole discretion to allow consideration of any additional grounds of appeal on cause shown.

8. Appeal Hearings

- 8.1 At the Appeal Hearing the following shall apply:

- a. Each Written Argument and supporting documents shall constitute the principal submissions of each Party;
 - b. Unless it otherwise directs, the Commission will expect each Party to rely upon its Written Argument without reading it over to the Commission;
 - c. Each Party may, subject to control of the Convener, Vice-Convener or acting convener of the Commission, make comment supplementary to the Written Argument;
 - d. Each Party may respond to any Written Argument lodged by the other Party; and
 - e. Each Party shall answer any points raised by any member of the Commission.
- 8.2 The rules of civil evidence in Scots law shall apply and the standard of proof in any examination of evidence shall be the balance of probabilities. Any witnesses who are called shall be required by the Convener, Vice-Convener or acting convener to take the oath or affirm before giving evidence.

9. Timing at Appeal Hearings

- 9.1 The Appellant and the Respondent have a duty to co-operate with each other and with the Commission to ensure the completion of the Appeal Hearing within the time allocated by the Commission.
- 9.2 The Commission may, at any point during the Appeal Hearing, set a timetable for completion by a Party of any submissions permitted in terms of Rule 8.1 above.

10. New information at Appeal Hearings

- 10.1 On cause shown, the Commission may permit either Party to introduce at the Appeal Hearing new information that has come to light in the period since their Written Argument was lodged.

11. Miscellaneous provisions as to running of Appeal Hearings

- 11.1 An Appeal Hearing shall proceed from day to day until concluded, provided always that it shall be in the power of the Commission, if in its opinion the justice of the case demands it, or for any other reason which may appear to be sufficient, to adjourn the Appeal Hearing either on its own motion, or at the request of either Party on cause shown, and subject to such conditions as it may think proper to impose.

- 11.2 The Commission may decide at any stage of the Appeal Hearing that all or part of the proceedings shall be taken in private, provided that if a decision on this matter was taken at the Appeal Management Hearing, a different decision shall be reached at the Appeal Hearing only on cause shown.
- 11.3 In appeals where it was deemed necessary at the Appeal Management Hearing to hear evidence, witnesses shall be cited in ordinary form by the Clerk of the Commission to appear at the Appeal Hearing. Such witnesses shall be examined on oath or affirmation, as the Commission shall direct, by the Party calling them. Thereafter the witness may be cross-examined by the other Party and the Party calling the witness may thereafter re-examine the witness on any new matter brought out in cross-examination. On the conclusion of the Parties' examination of a witness, any member of the Commission may put questions to the witness on his or her own behalf, or on the suggestion of either Party.
