

VIII. DEACONS ACT (ACT VIII 2010) (incorporating the provisions of Acts VIII 1998, IX 2001, VII 2002 and II 2004, all as amended) (AS AMENDED BY ACT XIII 2016, ACTS II AND VII 2017 AND ACT V 2019))

Edinburgh, 22 May 2010, Session IV

The General Assembly declare and enact as follows:-

The Office of Deacon

1. A Deacon is a man or woman who, under a Call from God, has pledged himself or herself to the service of Jesus Christ and His Church and has been selected, trained and ordained to exercise ministry in terms of this Act (or any succeeding legislation) and according to the doctrine and discipline of the Church of Scotland. The Office of Deacon is recognised by the Church to be a distinctive, lifelong status within the ministry of the Church and to be agreeable to the Word of God. For the avoidance of doubt, this Act does not apply to members of Deacons' Courts.

A. SELECTION, TRAINING AND ORDINATION OF DEACONS

Definitions

2. Section 1 of Act X 2004 shall apply to the Diaconate subject to the deletion of sub-sections (h), (j) and (k), all for the purposes of that application only.

Selection and Training of Deacons

3. Sections 2-11, 18-21 and 23-25 of Act X 2004 shall apply to the Diaconate. For the purposes of this Act:
 - (i) references to 'the Ministry of the Church of Scotland' or 'the full-time ministry' shall be understood as referring to the diaconal ministry of the Church of Scotland
 - (ii) references to Universities shall be deemed to include any institution of higher education approved by the Ministries Council for the training of Deacons.For the avoidance of doubt appeals against decisions taken in terms of this section shall be subject to the provisions of Act VI 2007 anent the Ministries Appeals Panel.

Academic and Practical Training of Deacons

4. (a) Each Candidate shall have a Course prescribed by the Ministries Council immediately following acceptance as a Prospective Candidate.
 - (b) The Candidate shall satisfy the Ministries Council of competence:
 - (i) in all areas of study prescribed from time to time by the Ministries Council, which shall always include the interpretation and use of Holy Scripture (both Old and New Testaments), the development and growth of the Church (with special reference to the Church of Scotland), the principal doctrines of the Christian faith (their interpretation, their defence and their application), the constitution and laws of the Church of Scotland, the history and contemporary understanding of the Diaconate in the Church of Scotland and ecumenically, practical theology (including mission, evangelism, pastoral care and counselling, the worship of the Church (especially the Church of Scotland), and the contemporary understanding of Church and society, and voice and communication skills;
 - (ii) in further optional courses approved from time to time by the Ministries Council and selected by the Candidate;

- (iii) in all areas of practical knowledge required by the Ministries Council, by satisfactory participation throughout their candidature in such residential courses and conferences as are prescribed by the Ministries Council;
- (iv) in attendance and participation at the Diaconate Council;
- (v) in the practice of the diaconal ministry, by completing to the satisfaction of the Ministries Council the three placements prescribed below.

Placements during Training

5. (a) As part of the Church requirements, three periods of placement work shall be undertaken by the Candidate, and must be completed to the satisfaction of the Ministries Council which shall determine the length and content of each placement. The placements shall normally include two during the academic course (of which one shall be part-time and shall last not less than twenty-five weeks and one shall be a full-time summer placement lasting not less than ten weeks) and one full-time placement of twelve months commencing on the first day of July, August, September or October in the year of completion of the prescribed academic course; the Ministries Council shall have power in exceptional circumstances to vary this arrangement.
- The candidate will not normally be permitted to engage in academic study through a university or college or in remunerative employment or office during the course of the twelve months full-time placement at the conclusion of the academic course.
- (b) The supervisor of each placement will be chosen by the Ministries Council and shall undertake training as specified by the Ministries Council. The supervisor shall be responsible for supervising the placement according to the guidelines and standards established by the Ministries Council and University, and shall produce assessment materials as required.
- (c) The assessment materials shall be assessed by the Ministries Council. It shall be competent for the Ministries Council to refuse to sustain a placement where it considers that the Candidate has not met the required standard or for other relevant reasons.

Sustaining the Course

6. (a) The Ministries Council shall obtain from the universities lists of those Candidates who have satisfactorily completed their prescribed Course, whereupon the Secretary of the Ministries Council shall inform candidates that they have permission to commence their final placement.
- (b) The Ministries Council shall, in consultation with the Presbytery, decide whether to sustain the final placement after nine months.
7. The Council shall maintain a list of those who have satisfactorily completed their training in terms of this Act and Act X 2004. An individual who has completed training, who has not been ordained as a Deacon and who has not applied to be removed from the above list, shall for the purposes of superintendence and discipline be treated in the same manner as a Graduate Candidate as defined in section 22 of Act X 2004 and all Acts and Regulations of the General Assembly relating to the superintendence or discipline of a Graduate Candidate shall apply to such individuals.

Ordination

8. (a) Entitlement. It belongs to Presbytery to ordain an individual to the Office of Deacon on his or her taking up an appointment. However, in order to ensure a general standard of qualification and training for the Office throughout the Church, a Presbytery may ordain a candidate to this Office only if it is furnished with a recommendation to that effect from the Ministries Council.
- (b) Procedure. The procedure leading to the act of ordination shall be the same as the procedure described in section 29 of Act VIII 2003 for ministers of Word and Sacrament, mutatis mutandis.
- (c) Ordained status. A Deacon, on being ordained, shall have the authority of the Church to exercise his or her appointed ministry. He or she shall be entitled to append the letters “DCS” (Deacon of the Church of Scotland) after his or her name and to wear the Diaconate badge. On being ordained, a Deacon shall be admitted into membership of the Diaconate Council.
- (d) Membership of Presbytery. A Deacon shall be a member of Presbytery if he or she occupies a parish appointment, or any other post that would entitle a Minister of Word and Sacrament to membership of Presbytery in terms of sections 11-13 of Act III 2000, and the provisions of those sections shall determine which is the relevant Presbytery. A Deacon who does not occupy such a parish appointment, or other qualifying post, but who is registered on the Register of Ministry in Category R, shall be entitled to apply for membership of Presbytery on the same basis as a Minister of Word and Sacrament holding Category R registration, being in terms of section 14 of Act III 2000.

Admission and Readmission of Deacons

9. Act IX 2002 (as amended) shall apply to the diaconate mutatis mutandis.

Transfer to the Ordained National Ministry

10. This section was deleted by Act V 2019.
